

GSIA visit to Jet Age Museum 20 April 2024

Around 40 members had a very successful and interesting visit to the museum. Volunteer Chris Campbell opened proceedings with an introductory talk about the museum's development, plus Gloucestershire's aviation history and its importance in a global context. Members then spent time browsing the many aviation-related displays. All in all, a very good day!

Stephen Mills May 2024