

Visit Report: Nailsworth Walk – Part 2 Sunday 19th May 2024

A group of 15 of us were treated to perfect weather for the walk which was led by Tony Burton, assisted by Brian Mundy. We started with a short briefing during which Tony told us about the earliest roots of the town, and how it had subsequently developed as an important transport hub and a centre for woollen cloth manufacture. At its peak, there were 16 mills and several turnpike trust roads, joined by a rail link that opened in 1867.

lightful parts of Nailsworth, visiting a number of old buildings. Remarkably, there are no less than 92 listed buildings in the town. Interesting commentary throughout the afternoon that
